STATEMENT OF DANIELLA MOHAZAB

I broke down at work today in tears of happiness that Tyndall is behind bars.

I cannot explain how scared I felt walking around with the thought that I could run into Tyndall at any moment, in a grocery store, coffee shop or park.

Thank you to the LAPD and to the law enforcement officers for their hard work in investigating this case.

This isn't over, but it is a huge step in moving forward. I am thankful for the support coming in, and I am thankful for those speaking up. This is why we are here, and this is why I am not stepping down.

We will not stay silent. The survivors of Tyndall are here to make sure we receive the justice that we deserve, to make sure that Tyndall and USC receive the punishment that they deserve, and to make sure that this does not happen again.
