Statement by Gloria Allred on the one-year anniversary of the incarceration of Bill Cosby

Bill Cosby's incarceration in prison is due to the brave women who had the courage to seek justice long before there was a #Me Too. They voiced what they alleged was the truth about their life when they met Bill Cosby. In addition, many of them who were my clients spoke to law enforcement about what they allege Mr. Cosby did to them, and they indicated that they were willing to testify in the criminal cases against Mr. Cosby. Some were, in fact, called as witnesses and bravely testified.

This anniversary should be remembered as a tribute to women who met this former celebrity's power with their own empowerment. As a result, women were believed, Mr. Cosby is a convicted felon serving time in prison, and many of his victims know that they have had an important role in Mr. Cosby receiving the justice that he so richly deserves.
