(Sacramento, CA): Acclaimed women's rights attorney Gloria Allred will testify in support of the Reproductive Health Non-Discrimination Act (AB 569) before the California Assembly Judiciary Committee tomorrow. Allred represented Teri James, a financial aid specialist at San Diego Christian College who was fired because she became pregnant while unmarried.

RHND, introduced by Assemblymember Lorena Gonzalez Fletcher (D-San Diego), protects workers from firing or other punishment based on their private reproductive health choices, and prohibits requiring employees to sign a code of conduct governing their reproductive choices. The bill is sponsored by NARAL Pro-Choice California and California Latinas for Reproductive Justice.
