Statement of Attorney Gloria Allred Regarding the Arrest of Ghislaine Maxwell

I represent 16 accusers of Jeffrey Epstein. To date, there has been no justice for them in the criminal justice system. A number of them were sex trafficked to Jeffrey Epstein when they were minors. They are still suffering the impact of their victimization today. The former U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Geoffrey Berman, personally promised some of my clients that even after the death of Jeffrey Epstein that the Justice Department would continue to conduct an investigation of anyone who might have conspired with Jeffrey Epstein to victimize young girls. Today, Ghislaine Maxwell is reported to have been arrested by the FBI. We do not yet know the charges she will face in court today, but we do hope that finally she will be accountable if the evidence presented in court proves beyond a reasonable doubt that she had a role in assisting and recruiting young girls to be sex trafficked and sexually victimized by Jeffrey Epstein.
