Statement of Jane Doe

Go home Herschel, whatever state you actually live in... go home. You weren't (wo)man enough to face me. I told the truth, and you hid behind your fences at every appearance after our first press conference. I am proud of coming forward to share the truth about you and your outright lies and abortion hypocrisy. I had the love and support of many friends and family, and most importantly my daughter. You will never know what that love feels like. You underestimated me, the voters of Georgia, and Gloria Allred. You, Herschel, are the loser. Just go home.
