Statement of Melissa Mills

My name is Melissa Mills. I am the oldest daughter of Norma McCorvey AKA “Jane Roe”.

I am here post-Roe to stand up in support of all women to be afforded their reproductive rights.

My mother was a force to be reckoned with as she made herself and her voice seen and heard. She was Pro-Woman and fought for a woman’s right to access safe health care, to take care of our bodies as we see fit without any controls over our bodies or our decisions.

I am DEVASTATED by the overturning of “Roe v Wade” which has set us back 50 years. Now our kids and grandchildren have less freedoms than we have had for almost 50 years.

My mom fought for decades for women to have more choices, not fewer. In honor of her and her case, Roe v. Wade, I will continue to fight for the right to choose legal abortion and against those who would restrict or deny the right to choose.
