Reaction of Halyna Hutchins' parents and sister to the conviction of Hannah Gutierrez-Reed

Halyna's parents and her sister have always wanted everyone who is responsible for Halyna's death to be held accountable.

Today was the first trial and conviction in the criminal justice process. We are satisfied that the jury, based on the evidence, found Hannah Gutierrez-Reed guilty beyond a reasonable doubt for her part in the taking of Halyna's life.

We look forward to the justice system continuing to make sure that everyone else who is responsible for Halyna's death is required to face the legal consequences for their actions.
