Attorney Gloria Allred statement regarding the dismissal of the criminal case against Alec Baldwin

This dismissal of the criminal case against Alec Baldwin is in no way, shape, or form an exoneration of him. The Court's decision is not a decision based on the merits of the criminal case against him. It does not change the fact that Alec Baldwin killed Halyna Hutchins on the set of "Rust." It does not change the fact that he fired a loaded gun while pointing it at a human being.

We are very grateful for the work that law enforcement and the prosecutors have done. We know that they worked hard to seek justice for Halyna Hutchins. We respectfully disagree with the Court's characterization and conclusion about them.

We regret that the judge did not exercise any of the other options available to her, which would have allowed the criminal prosecution to proceed.

The dismissal of the criminal case, despite the strength of the evidence of what Alec Baldwin did, only strengthens our resolve to pursue justice in the civil case that we have filed against him in New Mexico, and which is currently pending.

While the judge’s decision to dismiss will be a devastating blow to Halyna’s family in Ukraine who mourn her death every day, we will continue to champion the truth that Alec Baldwin is responsible for Halyna’s death.

We are dedicated to holding Alec Baldwin and the entire “Rust” production accountable in our civil lawsuit, which is not affected by the decision of the judge in this criminal case. Our case is important because we believe that everyone, even celebrities like Alec Baldwin and producers, should follow accepted safety protocols so that all crew members have a safe workplace.

Actors do not have any special right to ignore gun safety guidelines. We all have a duty to each other to make sure that our workplaces are safe.
