Statement of Gloria Allred

Mr. Cosby's second deposition in Huth v Cosby remains on the previously court ordered schedule for April 7 2016. The court had previously ordered his deposition to take place before April 8, 2016.

Mr. Cosby's attorneys are seeking to stay our entire case for what appears to be an indefinite period of time. That motion to stay the entire case will be heard on March 30, 2016. We agreed to that March 30 date.

If the court grants Mr. Cosby's motion to stay on March 30, then the April 7 deposition of Mr. Cosby will not go forward. If on the other hand the motion to stay is denied, then the deposition of Mr. Cosby will go forward on April 7 in accordance with the previously ordered schedule.
