I am here with Temple Taggart today in Utah to support her, because Mr. Trump has called her a liar and threatened to sue her.

Women who come forward about what they allege is Mr. Trump's inappropriate sexual behavior should not be intimidated into silence by threats of lawsuits. It is important for them to know that there are lawyers who will represent them if that happens.

Temple was very brave when she spoke out about Mr. Trump. She conducted herself with dignity.

I had never met or had any communication with Temple prior to her going public with her allegations. It was only recently after Mr. Trump called her a liar and threatened her with a lawsuit that she decided that she needed legal assistance and then she contacted me.

I am proud to stand by her side because I have tremendous respect for her courage in standing up to Mr. Trump.

This issue is not about sex. It is about the attitude and behavior of a man who seeks the highest office in our country, and who has already been caught on tape suggesting that he is entitled to grope and sexually assault women whenever he wishes to do so.

Groping women is completely unacceptable. Threatening women who come forward to speak out about what they claim happened to them is also completely unacceptable.

I assure you Mr. Trump that they will not be left to stand alone while you attempt to trample over them with your lawsuits. Many attorneys will come to their aid and I will be one of them.
