STATEMENT OF LORRAINE BOROWSKI

I am very disturbed that my daughter's murderer was released today. I am afraid for my family and my community.

I will never understand how a man who was once convicted of raping and murdering my daughter could be walking free in Illinois today.

My daughter was an innocent victim. She did not deserve what happened to her.

Nobody's daughter should suffer the way that Lorry Ann did.

I will always love Lorry Ann and her memory. She was and is precious to me and our family.

Her murderer did not receive the justice that he deserved, but I believe in God and I have no doubt that God will deliver the final judgment.
